SAMBHRANI CUPS AND STICKS

Upasana Sambhrani Cup is made from pure Sambhrani and extracts of natural herbs. This product does not contain charcoal, due to which the smoke produced by burning Sambharani is believed to spread a positive aura. It has a pleasant and long lasting fragrance, which helps in fulfilling your spiritual moment.

Usage guidelines:

- Burn the outer layer of the Sambhrani Cups in such a way that it is evenly ignited from all sides
- When the fire is ignited evenly, then extinguish the flame and keep it in a metal plate
- After that, if half of the Sambhrani cup burns, then put the Sambhrani powder available in the packet in it

Enjoy the pleasing and positive fragrance and get lost in your spiritual moments.

DASANGAM POWDER

Dasangam powder is made with ten natural herbs and selected spices. These herbs are being used in worship since ancient times. The smoke emitted by burning Dasangam infuses spirituality and positive energy in the atmosphere and its enticing aroma lasts for a long time.

Method of use

- Fill the Dasangam powder in the given plastic cone
- Turn the corner upside down and place it on a metal plate so that the powder comes into the corner
- Fire the top of the Dasangam powder and then extinguish
- The smoke emanating from it, along with transmitting positive energy, also makes the environment pure and fragrant
- Alternatively, you can also use Dasangam powder in Havan at the time of worship.
- Putting Dasangam powder on Gausanvidha or Charcoal can also create a pleasant aroma and positive atmosphere
- Use this product and make your surroundings pleasant
